PBS TEACHERS:

Your source for lesson plans and much more!

PBS is dedicated to providing you, your students and their families with resources that transform teaching and learning. When you are looking for new and innovative ways to enhance your lesson, PBS TEACHERS is just the site for you! This FREE resource has lesson plans, videos, interactive activities and MUCH MORE. We encourage you to visit the website to support your classroom activities.

PBS TEACHERS also is a great resource for FREE activity packs! An activity pack is a set of educational resources focused on a theme and packaged in a widget-format that you can embed in your own class or social media web page. Activity packs includes links to PBS websites and a set of activities by grade level. Explore educational resources and activities from PBS with our library of Activity Packs. Each pack focuses on a curricular theme and includes links to great supplemental activities.

FACES OF AMERICA: WITH HENRY LOUIS GATES, JR

What made America? What makes us? These two questions are at the heart of the new PBS series. Building on the success of his series, AFRICAN AMERICAN LIVES and AFRICAN AMERICAN LIVES 2, Harvard scholar Henry Louis Gates Jr turns again to the latest tools of genealogy and genetics to explore the histories of 11 renowned Americans. Looking into the wider immigrant experience, Professor Gates unravels the American Tapestry, following the threads of his guests' lives back to their origins around the globe.
